A Global Leader in Remote Proctored Assessments

Client Overview

The client is a best-in-class integrated engineering consultancy solutions provider. The organisation has expertise of over five decades, presence in almost all key industry segments, capabilities to handle multi-dimensional, large scale assignments and long-term relationships built across the globe.

Challenges

The volume of hiring in the company is extensive and they are constantly on the lookout for bright engineering graduates/ITI diploma holders.

The organisation was looking to:

1. Streamline their hiring process.
2. Improve the quality of hire.
3. Reduce cost and time per hire.
4. Improve offer to interview rate.

Solution

1. Wheebox - an ETS company identified critical to quality parameters in conjunction with the client and created standardised assessments consisting of skills including coding, case studies and behavioural competencies.
2. Wheebox - an ETS company provided online assessments and platform to address the issue of time consuming and costly recruitment process.
3. Provided an in-depth analysis through evaluation reports for each candidate assessed.
4. Approximately 27,000 assessments were conducted using the framework.
